

SYSTEM SUPPORT CONTRACT
SOFTWARE UPDATES AS THEY BECOME AVAILABLE
NON-WARRANTY PHONE SUPPORT

Toye Corporation is continually adding new features, enhancements, and functionality to its Access Central Software. All updates are free to Maintenance Contract Customers as they are announced without the usual update charges. Following are the terms of this program:

1. End user may call for technical support during normal Toye Corporation business hours.
2. If end user purchases an upgrade to the currently distributed software release at the time this contract is executed, all subsequent upgrades and releases will be provided at no cost while this contract is in effect.
3. Applies to all new software updates that would normally be included with new systems.
4. Updates to optional extra cost features will be maintained under this contract if purchased.
5. Not applicable to system configuration changes such as new site codes, number of cards or levels.

All upgrades and new releases are posted on the Toye Corporation Website (<http://www.toyecorp.com>), and may be downloaded at any time by Maintenance Contract customers. If any upgrades or standard features require modification to other system files, Toye Corporation will e-mail the necessary files to support the upgrades.
